2.0 Understanding your Home Screen

The screenshot shows the EducoSoft home screen for a student named Mr. Man Sharma. The interface includes a header with the user's name and navigation links (Home, My Profile, Support, Logout). A secondary header displays the course name '10th Grade CBSE' and the subscription validity period. A sidebar on the left contains various utility links like Tutorials/Tests, Progress Report, Glossary, and Notepad. The main content area features a course hierarchy tree on the left and a list of tests (PreTest and Test) with their respective scores on the right. Red callouts with numbers 1 through 19 identify specific UI elements: 1 (Welcome message), 2 (Subscription validity), 3 (Select Course button), 4 (Tutorials/Tests link), 5 (Chapter 1 tab), 6 (Course Hierarchy tree), 7 (PreTest scores), 8 (Test scores), 9 (PreTest button), 10 (Progress Report link), 11 (Glossary link), 12 (Tutorial Bookmark link), 13 (Notepad link), 14 (Announcements link), 15 (Survey link), 16 (Add/Renew Subscription links), 17 (Select Course button), 18 (Student name), and 19 (Logout link).
